MISSION SAN JOSE NEWS

WITH LOIS JUSTUS

Mary Rocha of the Mission, accompanied by her brother, Joseph and Miss Helen Guardanapo and Miss Florence Pashote of Newark, motored to San Francisco Sunday to Fleishacker Zoo, the Aquarium and Playland. They dined at Fisherman's Wharf, and then decided to take a ferry boat ride from Richmond to San Rafael. Then on to Vallejo to visit cousins Mr. and Mrs. Federigus and daughter. Back to Oakland where they attended the theater, and home. A very full day for two busy Missionites who very seldom get a chance to relax because they own the dairy here in town.

Miss Genevieve Underwood of Hayward, formerly of the Mission and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius S. Enright, has informed her friends here that she "dood it" in Reno last week. She became the bride of Mr. F. Silva Jr. and the young couple will be home to their friends shortly in Hayward.

What could have been a very serious accident resulted in a badly cut hand for Herman Medeiros of the Guadalupe Service and Inn. He was shaking a gallon jug of chocolate syrup (there goes the sugar) when it broke in the middle and collapsed. He had to have two stitches taken and several of his fingers were badly cut also. Hurrah! no more dish washing, so he says, for awhile.

It's a fish! Really and truly. His wife nearly passed out of the picture Saturday when Manuel Phillips came home with an honest to goodness six-pound bass instead of the usual fish story of the "one that got away." Manuel has been going fishing every other Saturday for ages and always the same story, but he was not dismayed for he KNEW there surely was just one little fish silly enough to bite on his hook, and it happened over at the Big Break, so now he won't be kidded nearly to death as he has been before.

Mrs. Elaine Kamp and daughter, Vicki, spent Thursday evening and Friday at Burlingame with her sister, Mrs. Ruth Santos and family. She returned by bus to Sacramento on Friday evening where she spent the day following with her dad, Harley L. Justus and wife. She returned to her home in Placerville on Sunday.

Miss Laura Azevedo spent a delightful week in Centerville as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. August DaAvilla.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Castro, the owners of "Our Place," are spending a much needed and deserved rest and vacation, first in Santa Cruz and then into northern California. Leslie Callahan is attending to the place of business until they return.

Robert Parker of San Francisco returned to his home there following a week spent with his daughter, Mrs. Alfred Bonner, at their home at the Highway Garage.

James "Red" Kelly of San Francisco, former employee here at the Dominican Convent and at the Palm Dale Estate, spent Sunday here visiting friends and especially "Nonie" Fernandez.

It's another boy for the Frank Reiss. Born on Saturday morning, September 21, little William Joseph Reiss came to make his home with daddy and mummy Reiss and his older brother. He weighed eight (Continued on page 2)

NILES WILL HAVE DEPARTMENT STORE

It won't be long until Niles will be a small edition of The Great White Way.

This week it was announced that W. E. Sletten of Hayward has taken a five-year lease on the stores now occupied by the Four Square Gospel Church and the Vieux Electric, and will remodel in preparation for opening a department store.

Sletten, formerly with the Penney Stores, plans to open sometime in November.

LIONS CLUB FETES VETERAN SONS

The Centerville Lions Club was host Tuesday evening to 18 ex-service men, for the most part sons of Lions, at the International Kitchen. It was an affair which especially honored the veterans, and the speaker of the evening was a veteran, George Oakes Jr., who served aboard the U.S.S. Oakland as radar officer with the rank of lieutenant. Judge Allen G. Norris was program chairman.

Servicesmen present were:

Dr. E. C. Grimmer Jr.
LeRoy Brown
Thomas W. Parry
Robert Lewis
Joseph F. Bauhofer Jr.
Anthony J. Silva
Jack Pool
Clyde Voorhees
Richard Marriott
Stanley Rogers
Karl F. Nordvick
Frank W. Katzer
Melford Alameda
Stanley Alameda
George Oakes Jr.

The program included the initiation of Floyd Dickerson of the Morton Salt Company at Newark, and the awarding of ten-year badges to J. V. Gool, Joe Bauhofer, Tom Maloney and Leland Martin.

Principal subject of discussion was the confusion of present rural mail routes in the vicinity of Centerville. R.F.D. routes from Niles, Irvington and Newark now deliver mail to homes on the borders of Centerville. A resolution was voted, to be forwarded to the Post Office Department, asking that the situation be corrected.

Also discussed was the matter of the Centerville Lions Club's participation in the July 1947 International Convention to be held in San Francisco.

WASHINGTON TO HAVE LIGHT BASKETBALL TEAMS

For the first time in four years, Washington will have 110 and 120 basketball teams. Practice is slated to start Tuesday, October 1, and the league season will open October 24.

This is a fine chance for all of the students who are too small to play football, or have an especial interest in basketball to show the coaches that they have some ability to compete in future years for the varsity and 130 division. They will play five league games and as many other practice games as the coaches can arrange.

Following is the league schedule and does not include the practice games:

October 24, Campbell at Washington.
October 31, Los Gatos at Los Gatos.
November 7, Live Oak at Washington.
November 14, Fremont at Washington.
November 21, Santa Clara at Santa Clara.

PROMENADERS PLAN SATURDAY DINNER

The Promenaders, Irvington's square dance group, are closing their first year with a dinner party at the International Kitchen Saturday night, September 28. Thirteen couples are expected to attend the festivities which will include the election of officers for the new year.

Those in charge of arrangements are Mrs. Edward L. Rose and Mrs. Irma Belding.

IS DATE OKAY?

The advancement committee, Boy Scouts of America for Washington Township, is contemplating holding a Court of Honor on Wednesday evening, October 30, 1946.

Centerville, Decoto, Irvington, Newark and Niles Boy Scout troops will participate. Ray Benbow is secretary.

If this date is in conflict with an activity of any other organization, Tom Maloney, Centerville 5, should be contacted at once.

DECOTO MAN, 62, KILLED BY AUTO; GIRL IS INJURED

The traffic toll for the week-end in Southern Alameda county brought death to a Decoto pedestrian and injuries to a Decoto girl, according to State Highway Patrol reports.

Jose J. Moreno, 62, of Decoto, was pronounced dead on arrival at Fairmont Hospital Saturday night after he was struck by a car driven by Marjorie M. Mosca, 26, of Oakland.

Investigating highway patrolmen, Tony Enos and E. B. Ayers, said the victim walked directly into the path of the car along an unlighted section of the Niles highway near Decoto. He was wearing dark clothing.

Carmen Soto, 16, of 320 Fourth street, Decoto, was hurt slightly when the car in which she was riding with Robert Montalvo, 16, Creek Road, Alvarado, struck a pole on Whipple Road, near Alvarado.

SOLOIST, LECTURER AT COUNTRY CLUB LUNCHEON TUESDAY

The opening of the fall luncheon meeting of the Country Club of Washington Township next Tuesday has two prominent guest entertainers lined up for its program.

Mrs. David Fraser of San Diego has been engaged as the main speaker of the day, and Mrs. Ruth Myall of Alameda will be the guest soloist.

Mrs. Fraser, generally considered to be one of the finest women lecturers in the state, is the State Federation chairman of ethics.

Mrs. Myall is the soloist at the Congregational Church of Alameda and is also a member of the Philharmonic Chorus of Oakland. She will be accompanied by Mrs. Wayne Heinbockel, also of Alameda.

MRS. VIEUX ILL IN SAN FRANCISCO

Friends of Mrs. Nellie Vieux are very sorry to learn of her illness which struck her quite suddenly when she was in San Francisco recently with her daughter, Helen Mae. She was rushed home and Dr. Grimmer called immediately. She is much better now, however, and is under the care of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Young, who came from San Francisco to take care of her. Mrs. Young's daughter, Mrs. Naomi Penland, was also here for a few days, visiting with her cousin, Miss Betty Vieux.

MRS. BRAUN LEAVES ON NEW YORK TRIP

Mrs. Harvey Braun of Niles left last Tuesday by train for New York, where she will visit her son and daughter-in-law. Her daughter-in-law will drive her back to Niles, while her son, whose business prevents a motor trip across the continent, will arrive later by train.

CENTERVILLE MAN TANGLES WITH PRIZE-FIGHTER

One of the many fights in Niles last week brought a fine of $50 to Jesus Gonzales of Centerville, who made the mistake of tangling with ex-prize fighter Joe Hudson, who is employed as a special officer by several Niles places of business.

Gonzales was arrested on charges of drunkenness and battery. He pleaded guilty and paid the fine.

CANYON HEIGHTS NEWS

By MARY PURDY

Mr. Denton Clark, Canyon Heights Drive, and Mr. Dale Adams of Centerville, went to Johnsville last week-end on a deer hunting trip. Mrs. Clark, accompanied by her two daughters, Rosetta and Alma Jean, spent the week-end in Sacramento visiting friends. The Clark family recently returned from a week's vacation at Pine Crest and Yosemite.

Mrs. Raymond Osborn and Mrs. John Names spent Wednesday in San Francisco shopping and attending the medical lectures at the St. Francis Hotel.

Mr. Sidney Westray left on Wednesday, September eighteenth, for his home in Lewisburg, Kentucky, where he was called by the serious illness of his father, Mr. Eugene Westray. Although the trip was made by plane, his father passed away before his son's arrival. Mr. Westray returned to Canyon Heights late this week.

Mission Fiesta Plans Get Under Way At Township Meet

Next year when Mission San Jose celebrates its 150th anniversary, attention of the entire state, possibly the entire Pacific Coast, and perhaps even the whole nation—will be directed to the little town which is the most historic of Alameda County and the entire Bay region.

That this is possible was indicated by the degree of interest shown by Washington Township organizations when more than a hundred representatives met Tuesday evening in the Mission San Jose school to set up an organization for promoting a sesquicentennial celebration.

Represented were the Irvington Improvement Club, and St. Jude Institute of the Y.L.I.; the Centerville P.T.A., Country Club of Washington Township and the Washington Union High School; the Niles Chamber of Commerce and DeGuadalupe Institute Y.L.I.; the Alvarado Chamber of Commerce; and the Warm Springs Chamber of Commerce. Residents of the Mission turned out in goodly number, too, the I.D.E.S., the Mission Firemen, and the Boys' and Girls' Club being represented. M. W. Armstrong of the county supervisors' office, also was present.

SUPERVISORS HELP

Armstrong told the group that the county supervisors were intensely interested in the festival and Andy Hynes of Mission San Jose stated that the board already had voted $2,000 in support of the project. It was reported by L. R. Batman, president of the Niles Chamber of Commerce, that the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, through Manager Harold Weber, had pledged its full support to a festival celebration which, Weber said, could be made into the biggest show in this part of the state in 1947.

Rev. Joseph Renault, pastor of the historic mission, suggested that the festival be held in June, closing on June 8 with an outdoor mass at which a church dignitary would officiate.

STANLEY SUGGESTS

Although not able to be present, Supervisor Chester E. Stanley relayed word through Chairman Lois Justus that he believed highlights of the celebration should be a parade featuring horses and historic costumes, a pageant which would largely employ home talent, and fiesta dances.

Carl Christensen of Irvington stated that he thought each town of the township should participate in some special phase of the affair; Warren Gravestock of the high school pledged aid of the school in coaching for a pageant and use of the school band; E. B. Hodges offered to conduct a poster contest; and Edward L. Rose of Irvington, who handled the queen contest for the recent Apricot Festival, offered to conduct a queen contest for the sesquicentennial.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

A board of directors representative of the township was chosen with some vacancies yet to be filled. Selected were: Judge Allen G. Norris of Centerville, L. R. Batman of Niles, Joe Lewis of Alvarado, James Nunes of Warm Springs, and Edward L. Rose of Irvington.

Directors representing Mission San Jose itself, chosen at the meeting September 10, are: Rev. Joseph Renault, Thomas Cunha, Jack Pereira, Frank Vargas, Hortense Cunha, Hazel Millard, Edna Gibson, Ann Mayock and Lois Justus, who is chairman of the board.

Posters and tickets for a booster dance to be given November 2 were distributed. The dance will be held at Linda Vista ballroom in Mission San Jose, with Jimmy Batchelder's orchestra furnishing the music.

HAYWARD FIESTA THIS WEEK-END TO DRAW CROWDS

Festival minded Hayward opens its gates Friday afternoon to thousands throughout the state who will attend the first annual Hayward Pioneer Days during the coming week-end in commemoration of the 100th anniversary of the erection of the adobe of Don Guillermo Castro.

The first white settler in Hayward, Don Castro built his adobe hut on the present site of the city hall after receiving the land grant of the Rancho San Lorenzo.

Opening the three-day fiesta, Joseph R. Knowland, chairman of the State Native Sons landmarks committee, and his son, U. S. Senator William F. Knowland, will unveil a plaque at 3:15 Friday afternoon at the city plaza, marking the site of the adobe.

Friday night, the Hayward Community Players will raise the curtain on the three-night staging of "From the Adobe of Don Castro" at the Jacob Harder Amphitheater at Bret Harte school. The pageant, depicting the history of Hayward from the time of Don Castro until James Rolph, then mayor of San Francisco, broke ground for the city hall, will be presented each night of the festival at 8:15 p.m.

The Castro Valley Horsemen's Association will present a horse show at the Oakland Stadium Speedway Saturday night at 7:30 p.m., with equine enthusiasts of central California competing for more than 100 prizes.

The day's events Saturday will be led off with a pioneer parade on downtown Hayward streets starting at 10 a.m.

Sunday will be homecoming day. Erans Memorial building will be for pioneers of the city. The Veterans opened at 10 a.m. as an assembling place for the "old timers" returning to Hayward to revive memories of former days. In the afternoon, they will be guests of honor at a reception and entertainment program.

FIRE ON BAILEY PLACE GETS OUT OF CONTROL

A tractor that backfired was the cause of a fire on the Bailey ranch on Cook's Road, Irvington, last Monday. Assuming the proportions of a major fire, it was necessary to call out the aid of the Irvington, Warm Springs, Mission San Jose and Centerville fire departments.

In addition to hay, one shed and a tractor were destroyed.

MANY FOODS CAN BE FROZEN

By the HOMEMAKING SPECIALISTS of the General Electric Consumers Institute

Eggs, pies, puddings, cooked foods—FROZEN? Yes, it's true! These, and many other types of foods have been tested for freezing in the General Electric Consumers Institute, and the results have been excellent.

Here are some of the most recent developments in the home freezer field. You'll be mighty happy with the results. For not only will the food be every bit as good as when you put it in the freezer, but its preparation and serving at a later date take but a few minutes.

Gathered here are instructions for freezing various types of foods!

Juices and Purees

APPLE JUICE—The secret of good apple juice is to make the juice from sound winter apples, then chill it immediately as it comes from the press (cider mill). Pack the juice in liquid-tight cartons and put them in your home freezer without delay. If the juice stands around, even for an hour or two, it darkens and gets that "cider" flavor.

GRAPE JUICE—Wash and stem fruit, preferably the Mascadine, Muscat, Thomas or Thompson seedless variety. Heat in aluminum or stainless steel kettle (other types may be used if not chipped), stirring occasionally until the fruit softens (at about 160 F); then press through a muslin bag (like juice for jelly-making is extracted). Cool juice thoroughly and pack in liquid-tight cartons. Freeze promptly. If you're not sure of the variety grown in your garden, take a sample to the U. S. Dept. Agric. Experimental Station nearest you for advice.

PUREE—A puree is a pulpy fruit juice which may, in most cases, be frozen and stored for long periods without noticeable change. Crush berries, sweeten, using one cup of sugar to each five cups of crushed berries. Package in liquid-tight containers and freeze.

Dairy Products

BUTTER—Butter will keep far better for a longer period of time at zero degrees F. than it will in an ordinary refrigerator. No special preparation or packaging is necessary.

CHEESE—Cheese is not noticeably changed in texture or flavor by freezing and storing at zero degrees F. or below, provided it is wrapped in moisture-vaporproof paper, heat-sealed, and held not longer than six months.

Cooked Foods and Left-overs

Your home freezer can be used to freeze a large variety of cooked foods and baked goods—both newly prepared and left-overs. The list of products which freeze well is a long one, including soups and soup stocks, beef, veal, lamb, and chicken stews; Hungarian goulash, chop suey, chile con carne; chicken a la king; roast beef and corned beef hash; spaghetti and meat balls; baked beans; all kinds of fruit pies, pumpkin, sweet potato and mince pies; puddings; bread, rolls; all kinds of cakes, doughnuts, cookies, etc.

All products should be packaged in cartons and heat-sealed, (or wrapped in moisture-vaporproof paper and heat-sealed) prior to freezing.

RELIGIOUS CLASSES WILL CONTINUE

Release time Protestant religious education classes will continue in Niles.

This was decided at a meeting of the Sanford Circle of the Niles Congregational Church last Tuesday evening. The Sanford Circle has decided to sponsor the project, and has already contacted localities, seeking their financial help in order to pay the salary of the teacher, Mrs. Chandler.

The response has been more than gratifying, and the members of the Sanford Circle are confident that the financial needs can be met.

The classes, for the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grade students of the Niles school will begin next week.

BUYS GAS STATION

SCOUTING AROUND

SCOUTMASTERS TO MEET

Assistant District Commissioner Phil Sousa announces that all Scoutmasters of the Washington Township Area will meet at the scout house in Centerville, October 2, to discuss plans for the fall round-up and rally.

RENEWAL OF CHARTER

The Newark Boy Scout troop committee, under Chairman T. C. Gunn, were laying plans this week to apply for the renewal of their charter for Troop 1. The members of the scout committee will file formal application today to renew their charter. Richard Texera, recently returned from military service, will assume active leadership of the troop as scoutmaster, according to Chairman Gunn.

NEW SCOUT LEADERS

At a meeting of the Boy Scout Troop Committee in Irvington Elementary School this week William H. Dobyns, formerly in the Seabees at Guadalcanal, was appointed scoutmaster of the Irvington Troop. William A. Shuey was named assistant scoutmaster at the same time. Present at the meeting were George Scammon, chairman, and R. A. Griffin, Gus C. Robertson, Allan B. Hirsch, Dobyns, Shuey, and District Executive Don MacDougal and assistant district commissioner Phil Sousa. Plans were laid for troop activities for the coming season.

PACK LEADERS TO MEET

Parents and leaders of the Centerville Cub Pack will meet at the Centerville Elementary School tonight (Friday). Southern District Scout leaders will be present and a training film for Cub parents will be shown. Cubmaster Tom Maloney, Assistant Commissioner Phil Sousa and District Executive Don MacDougal will take part in the program. Plans will be developed for the fall activities.

Conforming to the national plan for local operation, the Oakland Area Council has this week sent a call to the 34 organizations in Southern Alameda County, who are using some phase of Boy Scouting in their work, requesting the appointment of a representative from each to serve on the Southern District committee. This committee is assuming cognizance of local scouting operation. It is planned to hold a meeting of these institutional representatives early in November. The convocation of these representatives, together with committee members already functioning, will complete the organization of the Southern District of the Boy Scouts according to the national plan for district organization.

STANLEY WILL AID COUNTY FAIR

County Supervisors Chester E. Stanley and Clifford Wixson have been designated to represent the Board of Supervisors on the Alameda County Fair planning committee.

Stanley represents the bulk of the rural and unincorporated area of Alameda County. Supervisor Wixson represents Oakland and Emeryville. Both supervisors are optimistic over prospects of a real big county fair in 1947.

In past years the board was represented on the fair committee by Supervisor Harry Bartell, Chairman of the Finance Committee for the Board of Supervisors. Bartell's duties require much of his time; but he states that he will work just as hard for the success of the fair as he has in the past. Both Chairman Tom Caldecott and Supervisor George Janssen went on record favoring a bigger fair.

"It means," says Chairman Caldecott, "that all communities in the county must be behind the fair and back up the management if the fair is to be a success. The larger cities with a big proportion of the population must support the fair with attendance."

Bartell reports the State of California will appropriate more money this year for the County Fair. If materials are available and released by the CPA, work will start immediately on construction of an exhibit building which is badly needed at the fair grounds. Reluctance of exhibitors to show due to the fact that a tent was used is one of the reasons advanced why many firms did not display at the 1946 County Fair.

COLUMBIA RIVER FOUND

The Lewis and Clark Expedition arrived at the mouth of the Columbia River in Oregon in November of 1805.

ing, will complete the organization of the Southern District of the Boy Scouts according to the national plan for district organization.

This group will then nominate and elect district officers for the coming year and augment operating committees to present all of the services of council operation to the local field. Representatives appointed will automatically become voting members of the Oakland Area Council.

By this method, the organizations in Southern Alameda County which are using one or more phases of scouting in their youth program will have a voice in the establishing of policy and operation of the local council.

THEATRE GUILD PRESENTS 'HENRY V'

Mail orders are now being accepted for the only Northern California engagement of William Shakespeare's "Henry V," which begins Monday evening, September 30, at the new Stage Door Theater, 430 Mason Street, San Francisco. The technicolor film, starring Laurence Olivier in the title role, is sponsored by the Theater Guild. It will be shown twice daily, including Sundays, with all seats reserved. Prices are $2.40 for evening performances and $1.80 for matinees.

"Henry V" marks a distinct departure in the production of a Shakespearean play. In many ways it is a "photographed play" which shifts the motion picture technique whenever the scenes demanded by Shakespeare are too vast in size and importance to be portrayed adequately in a playhouse. The film has all the flavor and humor of the famed Globe Theater in which so many of the Bard's plays were first performed. In fact, this production begins with a performance of "Henry V" in the Globe Theater.

The film has received enthusiastic acclaim in all five American cities in which it has thus far been shown. It has its American premiere in Boston 23 weeks ago and is still playing there. It is also being exhibited in New York, Los Angeles, Chicago and Baltimore.

The north rim of the Grand Canyon of the Colorado River is one thousand feet higher than the south rim.

Here Is the Latest News about Chevrolet Deliveries

Everybody from factory to dealer is doing everything that can be done to speed deliveries to you

We have been informed by the Chevrolet Motor Division that the past month has witnessed only a slight improvement in the rate of production of new Chevrolet passenger cars. As a result, shipments of new cars to dealers for delivery are still far below the level we and the factory had hoped to attain by this time. In fact, through August, Chevrolet's output of cars in 1946 was only 22.6% of the number turned out during the corresponding period of 1941.

We know that Chevrolet is doing everything possible to step up its production totals—to ship more and more cars to us and to its thousands of other dealers throughout America... and we know, too, that we are assured of getting our full proportionate share of the current output and of future production gains.

Disappointing as the total figures have been—and despite the fact that Chevrolet was out of production entirely during the first three months of the year—it is nevertheless true that Chevrolet led all other manufacturers in production of passenger cars during June 1946, and has continued to maintain its lead in total production from that day to this.

We shall continue to make deliveries of new Chevrolets to our customers just as fast as we receive them; we regret delays as deeply as you do; we thank you for your friendly patience and understanding; and we promise you a new high motoring experience when you take delivery of your new Chevrolet, giving BIG-CAR QUALITY AT LOWEST COST!

Keep Your Present Car Alive

Meanwhile, may we suggest that you safeguard your transportation by bringing your car to us for service now and at regular intervals. Let us help you to keep it in good running condition—to maintain its performance, appearance and resale value—until the day when your new Chevrolet comes along.

... At the Peephole ...

Dr. HAROLD R. BARTON of Niles celebrated his birthday Saturday, September 21, by having a group of friends informally stop in for cake and ice cream during an "open house" secretly arranged by Mrs. Barton and daughter Mary. We think Dr. Barton SHOULD celebrate. Who wouldn't, with a brand new car in his garage?

We're glad to hear that LOREN A. MOHN of Niles is recuperating nicely from a recent illness. Mrs. Mohn reports, however, that Westvaco will just have to get along without him for another two or three weeks. He is maintenance superintendent at the Newark plant.

It's all settled now. ANNETTE KIRKISH of Centerville has decided upon Cal. She enrolled at the Berkeley college this week.

R. L. DUTRA, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Dutra of Niles, is up at Ft. Lewis, Wash., having fits because his copies of THE REGISTER haven't been arriving per schedule. Take it easy, R. L., as long as it means THAT much to you, we'll do our darndest to give you better service.

Also in the complaint department comes a frantic phone call from Mrs. F. L. BARNER of Niles. There was desperation in the poor lady's voice when she said, "I am NOT getting my paper." We have taken immediate steps to check with the mailing department of THE REGISTER, Mrs. Barner. The service should improve—but quick!

Incidentally, a fan of yours, Mrs. B., who thinks you are tops when it comes to cooking, believes that you should send in some of your choice recipes to be printed in the paper. How about that?

Again the complaint department—but a little out of our realm—is the complaint of Mrs. ROBERT MOORE. Mrs. Moore would like very much to take advantage of some of the interesting classes being given at the night school in Centerville, but, for FOUR EVENINGS a week Mr. Moore has to study his typing at the night school because of his job, and Mrs. Moore consequently stays home with their daughter. Her complaint isn't the typing classes, but that she can't find a high school girl in Niles to stay with Donna, so that she can go to night school too! We know just how she feels about the problem, and we wish we had it in our power to do something about it.

Mr. VERNON LEAL, accompanied by JOE LEAL, both of Irvington, have gone to Modoc county for the usual reason this time of the year. Yes, you guessed it, deer hunting. They are due back Friday, "I hope," says Mrs. Leal, with emphasis.

ELSIE SOITO of Irvington has accepted a position at the Belden resort on Feather River, just above Oroville. MR. and MRS. CUNHA drove her up Saturday and Marie reports the resort so lovely she hated to leave.

Speaking of the Cunha family—we are happy to hear Mrs. FRANK CUNHA is again established in her own home after spending two weeks with her sister, Mrs. VERNON LEAL, where she has been recuperating from a recent operation.

Postmaster M. W. LEWIS of Centerville returned to work Tuesday morning after enjoying a six weeks' vacation and rest. It was nice to see his friendly smile once again.

BERNADINE (BERNIE) FRANCIS of Centerville said she had a wonderful time Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. JACK SILVA Jr. at the ball game in Alvarado.

VIVIAN ROSE is returning to San Jose State College after having spent the summer as substitute clerk in the Centerville post office. Asked her if she intended to become a teacher but her answer was a bit evasive—wonder if she has other plans?

Mr. and Mrs. PHIL SOUSA spent Sunday in Santa Cruz fishing. Mr. Sousa said nothing about his own luck, however he told about the 15-pound bass Mrs. Sousa's brother, ANTHONY (TONY) AVILLA pulled from the briny deep. It was TONY's first trip—"beginner's luck," Mr. Emma P. NAVE of Knight's of Commerce!

Ferry is here for a short visit with Mrs. C. CALDWELL.

Messrs HERMAN MAU and MANUEL ROSE returned from a hunting trip in the mountains. Sh-h-h, don't ask them what luck they had! While they were up there they called on an old Centerville friend who now runs the Wagon Wheel Cafe in Fiddletown, N. B. RAMDALL.

Hint: It's all right if you ask MEL BENNETT of Newark what luck HE had on his recent hunting trip.

Dr. and Mrs. E. C. GRAU—lucky people!—are now the owners of a new maroon-colored Hudson coupe. Their cream-colored convertible Packard has been traded in.

Localities who enjoyed the festivities at the State Nurserymen's convention at the dinner-dance at the Claremont Hotel in Berkeley last Monday night were Mr. and Mrs. GEORGE ROEDING Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. LARRY THATCHER. Mr. and Mrs. CHARLES BURR were also present. Mr. Burr was formerly with the California Nursery Company.

Regrets are flying thick and fast over the intended departure from Decoto of Mr. and Mrs. WALKER, who are planning to move to a ranch near Auburn. THE REGISTER, too, will miss the refreshing writings in its columns of Elsa Walker, who is also the Decoto librarian.

Who was the femme fatale who was the cause of one of Niles' biggest and most interesting fights last week? The grapevine has it that FOUR men were engaged in fistfuffs on her account. It is getting so that a certain portion of Niles' Main Street should be roped off at night, and let the fists fall where they may! "See the fights, folks! Tickets sold right here! No waiting! Fights every fifteen minutes! A knock-out in every round!"

If you wonder why the TIM O'NEILLS of Irvington looked so weary-eyed on Wednesday, it was because on Tuesday evening they had square-danced in Oakland until the wee sma' hours. The O'Neills, veteran square dancers, were formerly members of the Oakland Square-steppers. Now, in Irvington, they are members of the Promenaders. And do they love to square dance!

Another localite who has enrolled in the popular San Jose school, Bellarmine, is GEORGE SILVA, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Silva of Centerville.

Stopping in th THE REGISTER office this week was Saturday Evening Post writer, SAMUEL W. TAYLOR of Atherton, who will have two stories appear in the Post shortly. He is trying to locate an acre of ground in this area for his brother-in-law, who is anxious to start a small factory, the nature of which cannot be disclosed at this time. (Rest assured that he was steered towards the Chamber of Commerce!)

Lt. and Mrs. J. W. Dale entertained at a dinner party in their home last Friday evening. The occasion was in honor of Lt. Dana Mitchell who is leaving soon for duty on the Island of Ponape. The guest list included Lt. and Mrs. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hitz of Livermore, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Welge of Comondorsky Village, Shoemaker.

Mr. and Mrs. William Carnie who have been occupying the D. A. Welch home on Deer Road for the past three months are moving to Hayward this week-end where they plan to make their home.

pounds at birth and will be home to his friends later this week.

On another one of their fishing trips are Lena and Cy Solon and Charles Boggini. They are in and around Requa, California, or is it a hunting expedition this time? Good luck anyway.

Eddie Azeveda, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Azeveda, underwent a tonsilectomy last week and is doing fine. He is employed by Frank Dias, our local carpenter.

Tony Brown of Durham Road writes his friends that he is near Fish Camp, California, trying to bag a big one. Deers, we presume.

Miss Ida Souza, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Souza, has returned to the Mission after several months in Alameda where she has been living with her cousin.

Frank Ordillo, houseboy at the C. L. Best Estate, leaves Thursday for his native Philippines where he will visit his parents whom he has not seen for twenty years. During the war he was in the U. S. Navy and in the Philippines but, due to restrictions, he was unable to visit his parents and the rest of the family. Bon voyage, Frank.

James Suddeth of the Highway Garage has been confined to his bed for a few days following a nerve-racking experience Sunday night on his way home from San Jose with his daughter. In Milpitas a pedestrian stepped from behind a parked car into the path of his oncoming car and was struck and killed instantly. Suddeth was not held.

Your correspondent wishes to print a retraction of certain news of a couple of weeks ago. A news letter was received from the A. F. Petersons who are now in Minneapolis, Minn., visiting Mrs. Peterson's folks, the Siems. Peterson advises that his tire company is not the Atlas as stated but The Triplex Rubber Company of which he is the president. They had a very delightful ten-day trip north through the redwoods to Portland, Seattle, across Montana and North Decoto, and send greetings to all their friends back in California.

Don't forget the big dance on November 2 at the Linda Vista Ball Room with Jimmie Bachel-der and his orchestra from Hotel Leamington. This will be the first of a series of dances held here to raise funds to help in the coming sesquicentennial in the Mission. Tickets are $1 including tax. You are invited to attend and help get the fund on its way so next year's celebration can be a success.

The Postmasters of Alameda County spent the early part of last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Gertrude Mooney, postmaster of San Lorenzo, at a cocktail party, and later went to the new post office building just recently completed near the Andrew Williams store, for inspection of the premises. During the war the tiny office at San Lorenzo advanced by leaps and bounds and now has a tremendous volume of business making it necessary for this large edifice. From there they proceeded to "Our House" for delicious eats, dancing and business meeting. The host, postmaster Harry Dietrich of Pleasanton.

Those present were: Miss Mary Janeiro, Decoto; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Harris, Newark; Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Foster, Hayward; Ford Samuels, Alameda; Mr. Bradley, Oakland; Manuel Lewis, Centerville; Lois Justus and daughter, Mrs. Elaine Kamp, Mission San Jose; Mr. and Mrs. Mooney and son, Burton of San Lorenzo, and sister-in-law of San Francisco, and Mrs. Videll, head clerk of the San Lorenzo post office. William McKinnon, Livermore, stopped by for cocktails but had another meeting in San Francisco, so was not present at the business meeting.

Joseph Rocha Jr. motored to Tracy Friday where he stayed over night so as to be in time for the wedding of his friend, Frank Gonzales Jr.

At a lovely 11 o'clock ceremony at St. Bernardo Church, Miss Dorothy Alegro became the bride of Frank Gonzales Jr. The bridesmaids were Miss Mildred Furtado and Miss Tiny Corso, and the maid of honor, Miss Bernice Alegro, sister of the bride. Joseph Rocha of the Mission was best man and the ushers were William Corsa and Richard Mattos, all of Tracy. Dinner was served at the American Legion Hall with 300 odd guests attending, followed by a reception and dance in the evening. The young folks left for a two weeks' honeymoon, destination unknown.

Junior Cody, who is making his home at the Mission Bell, spent last Saturday in San Jose with his sister. They went to dinner and attended the theater. Both Junior and his sister spent a very delightful day together.

Thinking Things Over...

By VIVIAN BATMAN

I had dreamed about it. I had even imagined in my dreams that it actually would happen. Then I would tell myself, "That's silly; it can't ever happen. You're just kidding yourself." I had even broached the subject, tentatively, to the editor. He looked at me queerly, "Look, dear (sometimes he calls me that), are you feeling well?"

But I kept on dreaming, hoping, planning. Not even the editor's scoffing could discourage me. I knew that it HAD to happen someday.

And it did! This week I called Centerville and the operator did NOT say, "My circuits to Centerville are busy; I will call you later." I am still reeling from the shock... but I am happy. I know now that dreams DO come true.

Kenneth Henry, of Niles and Hayward, who is an historian of sorts, has unearthed some interesting lore about Niles and vicinity. One of the bits of information I gleaned from him this week concerned traveling in the old days.

At one time a traveler had to on the road from Niles to Mission pay THREE separate tolls to travel San Jose. The roads, privately owned of course, were the only ones available and you HAD to pay.

GO TO SCHOOL!

Young people who are balking over the idea of continuing with their education should remember this: "Training is everything: The peach was once a bitter almond; cauliflower is nothing but cabbage with a college education."

I didn't say it. Mark Train said it.

MOTORISTS BEWARE

I am constantly discovering women in this township who don't drive. (I am one of them.)

How about forming a "We Don't Drive" club, ladies? We could decide, after our first meeting, whether we should engage the services of a psychiatrist or a driving teacher. If we chose the latter we might pool together and offer a prize to the one who won her driver's license first.

There is one drawback to this. If none of the members drive, how can they get together for a meeting?

We also might arrange a "husband-exchanging" deal whereby YOUR husband would teach SOMEBODY ELSE'S wife how to drive, as they say you can never learn to drive from your own husband. And think what fun the gossips would have if this latter course were chosen!—all these husbands driving around with wives not their own!

BAILEY FAMILY KEEPS BUSY WITH FIRES, POISON OAK . . . AND SCHOOLS

Lots of things going on in the L. E. Bailey household lately . . . the main thing, of course, was the big fire on one of the Bailey ranches which consumed 70 tons of hay, in addition to destroying a tractor. This followed closely on the heels of a minor tragedy which hit Norman Bailey shortly after his entrance at Menlo Junior College. He came down with a terrific case of poison oak. (Anyone who has had it, knows it is a tragedy.)

He recovered in time, however, for his parents to devote their attention to entertaining some very interesting guests from Riverside, Colonel and Mrs. Calder Innes and two children, Miriam and John. The Innes family was here in the bay area to see that John was properly located so that he could start his studies at Cal.

Mrs. Innes and Mrs. Bailey are life-long friends, having attended school together.

The next major event in the Bailey household—barring unforeseen things like fires, of course—will be the entrance next January of Evan Bailey into Stanford University. At the present time he is assisting his father.

Galvin Family Does Lots of Traveling

The Galvin family of Second street, Niles, has been doing a lot of traveling lately. Mr. and Mrs. Galvin recently returned from a very interesting and enjoyable trip to Seattle and Vancouver, B. C. While up in the northwest, they also attended the renowned Pendleton Roundup in Oregon.

At the Roundup also were the Galvins daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Stanhope, who flew up to the event in their AT6 plane, having only recently returned, in the same plane, from a trip to Cleveland to attend the National Air Races. The Stanhopes were very enthusiastic about the Air Races, and about their plane trip to the Ohio city. They spent a week there.

Mr. Stanhope, after so much flying, will "come down to earth" now to start attending classes at San Jose State College, when it convenes for the fall season next Monday.

Ivan Gets a Raise!

Ivan, the Russian workingman, has just got a raise, the Moscow radio boasts proudly to the capitalistic outer world.

Every Russian earning 300 rubles or less monthly gets a boost of 110 rubles, swelling his paycheck to as much as 410 rubles. That's a minimum raise of 36 per cent—more than any U. S. labor union has ever gained for its workers in one slice.

In fact, everybody in Russia earning up to 900 rubles monthly gets a pay hike. The 900-ruble man's raise is 80 rubles.

The workers didn't have to strike for this! Their government, so benevolently despotic, kindly decreed Ivan's raise.

That's wonderful propaganda — from the Moscow radio.

What the Moscow radio forgot to report, however, was that Russia's government, which also benevolently decrees prices, recently put in a new retail price schedule. Americans in Russia report that men's leather shoes cost from $67 to $133 a pair; women's leather shoes from $67 to $252; women's ready-made dresses from $125 to $183.33.

Now, Russia's Ivans, with their new pay scale running from 410 to 980 rubles, have purchasing power equivalent in American money from $82 to $196 a month. Wonderful raises! In six weeks, a top-salaried Russian worker can earn the price of a good pair of shoes for his wife; a low-salaried man the price of a cheap dress.

There should be a moral in this for the dwindling minority of Americans who still are persuaded that bureaucratic regulation of the people's business from Washington is protection for the "little people"—that it helps them to get more of the good things of life; that it makes their money go further.

Try telling that (if his government would permit you) to Ivan!

"Big Steel" Comes West

When the board of directors and top officials of the two-billion-dollar United States Steel Corporation hold a meeting, it is always industrial news. But when they come West for the first time, as they have for a regular directorate meeting this week in San Francisco, they make news of unique significance for pulsing, expanding, developing California.

Big Steel's high command comprises a virtual "Who's Who" of U. S. industry and finance. Combined, the members hold directorships in more than 50 corporations—banks, railroads, utilities, insurance, oil, rubber, building materials, retail and wholesale merchandising. Their western tour includes Big Steel's Geneva plant, where $70,000,000 is being invested; the subsidiary Columbia Steel Company's mill, where $25,000,000 is going into new construction; Columbia's Torrance plant and the U. S. Steel Products Company plant in Los Angeles—and other installations and factories.

But western observers see something epochal in this visit—see it as an historic turning point. "At last," writes Robert C. Elliott, industrial editor of the San Francisco News, "eastern big business is going all-out to develop the West. There won't be a battle royal between the East and West. Instead, the East recognizes the West as the fastest-expanding region of opportunity in the nation. We are no longer a crown colony of the East! . . . This is Big Steel's dramatic way of telling the nation that it is a definite part of the new West!"

Henry Wallace, Private Citizen

Henry Wallace should be happier as a private citizen than he was as a member of President Truman's cabinet.

Certainly, Secretary of State Byrnes is happier since the change took place. And there can be no doubt that the great majority of the American people are immeasurably relieved.

Now Mr. Wallace can talk all he wants to and on any subject without embarrassing the Administration or knifing Secretary Byrnes in the back.

His resignation, of course, was the only logical solution to the mess which he and the President created. If Mr. Truman had not forced him to quit it is more than likely that Byrnes would have stepped down in protest to the sabotaging of the foreign policy which, on the President's instructions, he was endeavoring to carry out at Paris.

It seems generally agreed however, that the dismissal of Wallace has restored the position of the American delegation at Paris. Since the former Secretary of Commerce took a stand in opposition to that of the Administration and since he has been fired because of it, the hand of Secretary Byrnes, in the final analysis, has been strengthened.

As for President Truman, the affair has put him in a most unfavorable light. If he really knew the contents of the Wallace speech before it was made—and he says he did—it is impossible to understand why he let Wallace make it. He certainly must have known the detrimental effect it would have in this country and abroad. His guilt in the matter is hardly any less, therefore, than that of Wallace.

The whole matter was most unfortunate, but its one redeeming feature is that Henry Wallace is now out of the nation's hair, so to speak.

Yes, Mr. Wallace will be happier as a private citizen.

PIG IN THE POKE!

The FARMERS CORNER

by RALPH H. TAYLOR

Executive Secretary Agricultural Council of California

The proposal of the Food and Agricultural Organization of the United Nations to set up a world food board to establish and regulate an "ever-normal granary," with power to control food prices and distribution over the world, was announced in Washington about the time H. L. Mencken gave his first newspaper interview in a long while.

Now, there is no direct connection between the FAO's proposal and what the aging "Sage of Baltimore" had to say. Mr. Mencken didn't even mention the world food control plan. But the barb-tongued iconoclast of the 1920's, who was quite the rage among young intellectuals of those days and is somewhat passe now (the fate that overtakes the soothsaying wits of every generation if they live long enough), did repeat one of his pet ideals that is eternally fresh because it has considerable truth in it. This is the accusation that a native American weakness is refusal to recognize the tough fact that there are some human problems which admit of no simple, utter, final solution.

No man as clever as Mencken can sound off as often as he has, even maliciously and with tongue-in-cheek, without hitting the nail of truth on the head now and again. He is right in this instance! We Americans, as a people, have enough virtues so we can afford admitting a national fault. Here sardonic Mencken puts the finger on one that we cannot dodge. We have more regulatory laws—Federal, state and community—than any other people on earth. Each one of numberless "directive" statutes was set up to solve permanently some social ill—and most of them have actually worsened the condition they were designed to remedy.

In the large, the pattern of the New Deal is an example to justify the Mencken criticism. The New Deal's purpose was high and laudable. It was designed not only to cure the depression that gave it excuse for birth—but to cure all causes of depression and unemployment and business failure for all time to come! It attempted to solve over night problems that have beset mankind through the ages. And so it failed. And so the New Deal is receding in the United States.

But now, unfortunately, arises this insistent and vocal movement to expand the specious principles of the New Deal on a planetary scale! The FAO's proposed World Food Board would undertake to "stabilize" food prices in all world markets. It would do this by buying up surpluses, wherever these come into being, and selling them when and where they are needed—at whatever prices the needy can pay, if anything. The FAO plan is for the WFB to include representatives of other international organizations—the Bank of Reconstruction and Development, the Economic Commission of the United Nations, and the proposed International Trade Organization.

Here we have the New Deal pattern all over again—alphabet soup and all. Of course, unregulated world markets have never worked perfectly. Nothing is perfect in this world. But because a thing isn't perfect doesn't mean that a vast, unwieldy cure-all won't make it worse.

"Not for its novelty, since it follows the too familiar pattern of power-enforced happiness for the common man," comments the Pacific Coast Edition of the Wall

The Editor, Sir:

It must be apparent to all who use the telephone that the system has broken down, how badly the average person does not realize, but we whose business is built around its use are up against a serious situation.

The writer has today broken all

Street Journal, "but for its blind acceptance of impossible ways and means to a desirable end, the program of international action offered by the FAO is worth a lifted eyebrow or two. It is a scheme which only a world monopoly of food production and marketing, backed by the armed force of angelically co-operating governments, could imaginably carry out . . .

"No one can question the desirability of moving food from where it is 'surplus' to where people cannot get enough to eat. But that is precisely what free markets in private hands undertake to do. It is only by serving that objective—and in the measure they serve it—that free markets can function actively . . . The total result is the only kind and degree of price stabilization which avoids disasters of national scope."

It is to be hoped, not only for the welfare of U. S. agriculture and all U. S. industry and labor, but for the welfare of the entire trouble world, that a cure-all version of New Deal stamp will not be permitted to shackle and enslave internationally the system of free enterprise. We have something which isn't perfect—but which is workable and improvable.

his previous "waiting for the operator" records (27 minutes). Even after waiting for the operator to answer we are more often than not told the lines to San Francisco are busy and she will call us back. They never call back, as most of us have learned.

If water to my plant were shut off I could not operate, and would have to retire from business. The same is true of electricity. Another of the important public services that business has been built around is the communication or telephone service, and such as it is today I can state in all sincerity I cannot conduct this business with it as it is.

We all know the causes for this—an influx of population, restaurants, movies, transportation and other facilities to the public are overtaxed.

These public services together with those mentioned are privately owned and as such have no "police" power to better their condition. I wonder now how inadequate our highways would be had not a provident occurrence come about early in our national life to make them public—to say nothing of the mails, neither of which has failed us as has the telephone service.

This should give the phone people something to think about in these times when a distressed public is willing to try any expedient—even public ownership.

ALVARADO SCHOOL ENROLLMENT 208

Alvarado Grammar school, with an enrollment of 208 pupils, is again well launched into the school year. Les Maffey, principal, reports two new staff members—Mrs. Iva May Seals, third grade, and Nathan E. Click, seventh grade. Click is also athletic director and from the schedule posted on the bulletin board, the season promises to be a busy one.

When interviewed, Dora Ramirez and Norman Perry, cub reporters, were enthusiastic in their praise of the student body elections and of the "Judge and Jury" council which handles the punishment of school regulation offenders.

The student body officers elected for the year are: Gilbert Cicairos, president; Selina Rigmaiden, secretary; Connie Saulcedo, vice-president; Marie Jardine, treasurer; and Theodosio Olascio, sergeant-at-arms.

Brown kelp plants off the Pacific Coast often grow as large as redwood trees.

BUILDING CONSTRUCTION SHOWS IMPROVEMENT

Building construction, though hampered by shortages, increased somewhat recently, according to the California State Chamber of Commerce. "Judging from employment estimates, actual activity increased about 15 per cent from late winter through mid-summer. Lumber supplies have increased recently but still are short. Most acute shortages are of copper products, nails, and other metal products," according to the report.

INDIVIDUAL INCOMES SHOWING INCREASE

Recent evidence indicates individual incomes are rising, following the drop after V-J Day, and are now close to the levels of a year ago. Individual income tax collections in California for the year ending June 30, 1946, totaled over a billion dollars, just 3.7 per cent below the previous fiscal year.

THE TOP MOVIE FAVORITES for 1946 are now being determined by a year-round poll of the nation's movie-goers conducted by Dr. George Gallup's Audience Research, Inc. for Photoplay magazine. A late summer round-up finds the ten stars pictured here as leading in the race for honors as America's most popular actor and actress. The stars are not in order of their preference, since the final results of the poll won't be announced till January of 1947. The winning male and female star will each receive the famous Photoplay Gold Medal Award. Last year Bing Crosby and Greer Garson were named by movie-goers as the year's favorites, and both are mentioned in early returns of the poll this year.

MODEL AIR NEWS

By DON BATMAN

Last Sunday there was a model airplane contest in San Francisco, so there was no Southbay Modelers Club meeting. We all went to the contest instead of having a meeting.

Some of the club members took their planes to enter in the contest.

First was the tow-line glider event. Then came the gas models. The fastest plane flew 109 8-10 miles per hour.

Butch Mohn was going to fly his P.D.Q. and Gordon Kibby was going to fly a Stratocat, but couldn't.

Since last week there wasn't room for the column, I'll write about it this week.

I wasn't there very long the Sunday before last because I was busy finishing up my Cyclone.
